GEORGIA FRONTIERE

Chairman/Owner

Georgia Frontiere graciously accepted the Vince Lombardi trophy following perhaps the most remarkable run in the 80 Season History of the National Football League as the St. Louis Rams won Super Bowl XXXIV. This was truly the crowning moment for Georgia, who begins her 22nd season as Chairman and Owner of one of the NFL's most historic franchises.

During her tenure, Frontiere has led the Rams to two Super Bowls and to ten playoff appearances. As the Rams enter the 2000 season, their sixth in St. Louis, they anticipate an exciting year and expect to be serious contenders when it comes time for the playoffs.

In addition to her role with the team, Georgia has long been recognized for her philanthropic work and is a leading contributor to the St. Louis community, assisting a wide variety of groups with an emphasis on youth, education, and the arts. In 1997 she formed The Rams Foundation, which has donated more than $600,000 to charities in the St. Louis region, and has been instrumental in creating innovative programs for the children in the community.

Georgia's dedication to the advancement of youth is underscored by her commitment of One Million Dollars to the Fulfillment Fund, an organization which sponsors more than 2,000 high school students who are selected for having college potential, but whose financial opportunities are limited.

In 1992 she initiated a contest to award a $5,000 scholarship to a student who creates the winning illustration for the Rams Media Guide. Thousands of St. Louis area youngsters have participated in this contest, and every year the winner's illustration is featured on the Media Guide cover.

Georgia has become a major presence in the activities of the St. Louis Variety Club, serving on the Executive Committee and contributing her time and singing talent to the annual telethon. She plays a major part in the "Bikes for Kids" program, which annually provides bikes for low income children. Each year she hosts a group of 100 children at the Rams Training Facility to receive their bikes and they are also invited to attend a Rams game.

As a Board member of the St. Louis Symphony, she has endeavored to build alliances between sports and cultural arts in St. Louis. Every year the Symphony Children's Choir sings at a Rams game during the holidays.

For the past 20 years, the Rams through Georgia have been deeply involved in the United Way Organization. In 1997 Georgia appeared in a United Way public service announcement and during 1998 orchestrated the 25th anniversary of the NFL/United Way partnership with a series of local activities. She is a member of the Alexis de Tocquerville Society for her contributions to United Way.

For her St. Louis civic and charitable accomplishments, the St. Louis Ambassadors named Georgia "Sportsperson of the Year" in 1997.

The fact that Georgia was born in St. Louis is very meaningful to her, and to bring her team to her hometown and have it achieve the highest honor by winning the Super Bowl is something that makes her both proud and humble. As she puts it, "There are so many factors that have to all come together — the players, the coaches, and the fans who believed that they could do it. The fans never gave up. The team never gave up. And the coaches all showed that they were world class competitors."

She is a Board member of the Laumeier Sculpture Park in St. Louis County, the St. Louis Zoo, and recently was named Chairperson for this year's Kids Zoofari, an annual event put on by the Zoo Friends Association. She was also recently named to the Board of the Herbert Hoover Boys and Girls Club and is the Chairperson for its golf tournament this year. Georgia is an avid golfer. In 1989 she was on the winning team that represented Southern California in the finals of the NFL Alumni Golf Tournament.

She led the way for the pre-'59er pension plan, feeling strongly that a financial plan was necessary for the1,000 or so players who had no pension benefits prior to 1959, and started the NFL Dire Need Fund for the Los Angeles Chapter. This led to the creation of the National Football League Alumni "Dire Need Fund" for all NFL players.

Georgia is a Board member of the Crohn's and Colitis Foundation of America, and a National Board member of the American Foundation for Aids Research. She occupies a similar position with the St. John's Ambulance Brigade of Great Britain, which provides free ambulance and emergency services throughout the United Kingdom.

Having grown up during World War II, she never forgot the young Americans who lost their lives fighting side by side with the RAF. In 1998, another one of her dreams came true — to build a gallery in the American Air Museum in Duxford, England, where over 30,000 names are permanently etched on the walls of the Georgia Frontiere Gallery in the museum. She joined with actors James Stewart and Charlton Heston in performances to help make the American Air Museum a reality. The museum, which houses many airplanes used in World War II, commemorates the American Airmen who gave their lives to the cause of freedom.

"As far back as I can remember", she says, "one of my main goals in life was to become a fabulous opera singer and return to St. Louis and make everyone proud of their native daughter." Her many other responsibilities and commitments have prevented her from pursuing her music career full-time. "I have absolutely no regrets — I still sing every day and for charity fund-raising events. Besides, even though I didn't return to St. Louis as a diva in the Opera, I guess having a team win the Super Bowl is something not many sopranos can do" she said.

Georgia is the mother of two children, son, Dale Carroll Rosenbloom, who is married to the former Kathleen Melville, and daughter, Lucia Pamela Rodriguez, who is married to Lupe Rodriguez. Georgia has six grandchildren.

STAN KROENKE

Vice Chairman/Owner

Kroenke is a native Missourian whose emergence as a member of Rams ownership was critical in the effort to return professional football to St. Louis and whose expertise was instrumental in the creation of Rams Park, the premier NFL training facility.

Completed in June, 1996, Rams Park has been a model for other NFL training sites, sitting on 20 acres in St. Louis County and conveniently located minutes from Lambert Field Airport. The Park includes three natural grass, outdoor practice fields, an indoor practice facility, and 90,000 square feet for football operations and administration.

Kroenke is chairman and owner of The Kroenke Group, a private real estate investment and development company with offices throughout the United States and headquarters in Columbia, Missouri. During the past three decades, Kroenke has earned a reputation as one of the nation's leading developers of shopping centers and apartment buildings.

Stan is a member of the Board of Directors of Wal-Mart Stores, Inc., and has other business interests that include director positions with Community Investment Partnership I and II of St. Louis, and the Boone County National Bank in Columbia.

Kroenke serves as a trustee of the College of the Ozarks and of the Missouri Basketball Hall of Fame. He is a member of the board of the Central Bancompany in Jefferson City. Stan also has active membership in St. Louis's Civic Progress, which provides support and leadership for various community improvements that address economic development, education, and quality of life.

Kroenke has undergraduate and graduate degrees from the University of Missouri and is an active supporter of Mizzou athletic programs, including the Dan Devine Club, named for the former Tigers football coach. E. Stanley Kroenke was born in Cole Camp, Missouri, and grew up in Mora, Missouri. Stan and his wife, Ann, have a daughter, Whitney, and a son, Josh, and reside in Columbia.

JOHN SHAW

President

21st Season with Rams

John Shaw's importance to the Rams and his influence in the National Football League were dramatically underscored in the 1990s, a decade which concluded with the Rams roaring into Super Bowl XXXIV and completing a storybook season with a 23-16 victory over the Tennessee Titans.

Perhaps the most important move in the NFL in 1999 was the trade Shaw and Jay Zygmunt negotiated with the Indianapolis Colts two days before the NFL Draft. The Rams sent second- and fifth-round draft choices to the Colts for running back Marshall Faulk, who set an NFL record for combined rushing and receiving yards and was a fiery, inspirational leader as the Rams improved from 4-12 to 13-3 in the regular season and went on to the Super Bowl.

Shaw, who joined the Rams in 1980, oversees all aspects of the Rams' operation. A finalist in voting for 1999 NFL Executive of the Year by The Sporting News, Shaw also was the principal figure in negotiating the return of professional football to St. Louis in 1995. During this period Shaw maintained his role as an active participant in shaping the future of the NFL as a member of the NFL Management Council Executive Committee. John was a principal contributor to the enactment of a Collective Bargaining Agreement with the NFL Players' Association that brought labor peace to the NFL in 1993.

John is a native of Brooklyn, New York, who moved to San Diego as a youngster, attended high school there, and graduated as class valedictorian at the University of San Diego with a bachelor's degree in accounting. Shaw continued his education at New York University School of Law, from which he received a Juris Doctor Degree, and is a member of the California Bar. Shaw has been involved in sports since he was a youngster. He played tennis in high school and coached Little League baseball and youth basketball teams. Shaw also was a high school basketball game official. John is married (Lori) and has a daughter, Alexandra.

JAY A. ZYGMUNT
President, Football Operations
19th Season with Rams

Jay Zygmunt was named President of Football Operations on February 4, 2000. He oversees all phases of Rams football and works closely with Head Coach Mike Martz and General Manager Charley Armey. Jay joined the organization in 1982 as General Counsel and has served the Rams as Executive Vice President since 1996.

Zygmunt is one of the NFL's most respected executives. He has principally been involved in the signing of 18 Rams first round draft choices since 1982 as well as scores of other drafted rookies and veteran free agents. Jay's knowledge of the myriad aspects of the NFL salary cap is widely recognized.

A native of Chicago, Jay graduated from the University of Notre Dame in 1973 with a bachelor's degree in business administration and is a member of the University's Sorin Society. Zygmunt earned his Juris Doctor degree from the Northwestern University School of Law, where he is a member of the Whigmore Club.

Zygmunt is a member of the Illinois Bar, the Sports Lawyers Association, the American Bar Association's Forum Committee on the Entertainment and Sports Industries and is also a Certified Public Accountant. Jay, who resides in in Clayton, Mo., enjoys golf and deep-sea fishing, hobbies he pursues when time allows in the off-season.

CHARLEY ARMEY
General Manager
21st NFL Season
Fourth with Rams

A veteran of more than 20 years in the NFL, Armey joined the Rams after the 1997 NFL Draft and supervises the Rams' pro and college scouting departments and coordinates the annual collegiate draft, among other responsibilities. Prior to joining the Rams, Armey was with the New England Patriots, 1991-97, as Assistant Director of Player Operations, negotiating with and signing drafted players and free agents. He also held the title of Director of College Scouting.

Armey was a scout for the Atlanta Falcons from 1988-90 and a scout for the Green Bay Packers from 1985-87. He served the Denver Gold, Memphis Showboats, and Chicago Blitz of the USFL as an assistant coach, director of scouting, and as assistant general manager from 1983-85. He was the Gold's head coach for four games in 1983 and was a scout for the Buffalo Bills from 1978-82.

Charley began his career as linebackers coach under Ron Erhardt at North Dakota State in 1968, was head coach and athletic director at Montana Tech from 1969-70, defensive coordinator at Montana, 1971-73, and assistant head coach and offensive or defensive coordinator at Colorado State from 1973-77.

Armey, a four-year veteran of the U.S. Navy, holds a bachelor's degree from Valley City State in North Dakota and master's degrees from North Dakota State. Armey enjoys classical music, reading and writing. In fact, he has authored a book entitled Winning Football with the Four/Three Defense. Charley and his wife, Audrey, reside in Lake St. Louis and have two daughters, Lisa and Kellie, and two grandsons, Travis and Tristam.

BOB WALLACE
Senior Vice President/ Administration, General Counsel
20th NFL Season
Sixth with Rams

A veteran of two decades in the NFL, Wallace oversees the day-to-day business operation of the Rams, including departmental supervision and planning.

Wallace, who lettered in football as a running back at Yale University, first associated with the NFL and with professional football in St. Louis as a teenage training camp assistant with the St. Louis Cardinals in 1971. He later served the Cardinals as the Counsel to and chief contract negotiator for the organization while representing the St. Louis law firm of Guilfoil, Petzall and Shoemake from 1981-91.

Wallace was Assistant to the President, General Counsel, and chief contract negotiator for the Philadelphia Eagles from 1991-94. He returned to St. Louis when the Rams moved here in 1995. A native of New York City, Wallace was a legal intern on former NFL commissioner Pete Rozelle's staff while in college. Upon graduation from Yale, Bob earned his law degree from Georgetown University in Washington, D.C.

Bob is the President of Giant Steps of St. Louis, a school for autistic children. Wallace also serves on a number of area boards, including the Urban League of Greater St. Louis; Repertory Theater of St. Louis, and the St. Louis Sports Commission. Bob is a member of the Sports and Entertainment Division of the American Bar Association, and is on the board of the Sports Lawyers' Association. He has been an instructor in sports law at St. Louis University School of Law and received a certificate of recognition for law and education projects from the St. Louis Public Schools.

Bob, who is married to Julie, is an avid sportsman and especially enjoys basketball, racquetball and golf, but spends much of his free time watching his sons, Grant and Eric, play sports. The Wallaces reside in St. Louis.

MIKE MARTZ

Head Coach

Ninth NFL Season

Seventh with Rams

Rams Owner and Chairman Georgia Frontiere appointed Mike Martz the 21st head coach in the 63-year history of the Rams on Feb. 2, 2000. The 49-year-old Martz first joined Frontiere's organization as an offensive assistant in 1992 and went on to establish himself as one of the NFL's outstanding offensive coaches. In the Rams' 1999 Super Bowl championship season, Martz served as offensive coordinator of one of the most explosive teams in the 80-season history of the league.

The Rams led the NFL with a 400.8-yard offensive average in 1999, scored 526 points, the third highest total in league history, and Martz supervised the development of Kurt Warner, who passed for 41 touchdowns and a 109.2 passer rating that earned Warner NFL and Super Bowl most valuable player honors. Marshall Faulk enjoyed one of the greatest seasons of any running back, becoming the second player to rush and catch for 1,000 yards each and setting an NFL record with 2,429 combined yards. Six Rams offensive players went to the Pro Bowl, including wide receiver Isaac Bruce, whose performance was of the standard set by Bruce when Martz was Bruce's receivers coach for the Rams in 1995-96. Bruce caught 77 passes for 12 touchdowns and teamed with Warner on the 73-yard scoring strike that propelled the Rams to their 23-16 victory over Tennessee in Super Bowl XXXIV.

Martz joined the organization in California as a rookie NFL coach and offensive assistant in 1992. He coached tight ends, receivers, and quarterbacks with the Rams through the 1996 season and coached quarterbacks with the Washington Redskins in 1997-98. In 1995, Bruce caught 119 passes, fourth highest total in NFL history, for 1,781 yards, second highest total in NFL history. In 1998, quarterback Trent Green, who had thrown one pass in his four previous seasons, became the Redskins' starter in Week 2 and threw for 23 touchdowns and only 11 interceptions. Green signed as a free agent with the Rams in 1999 not long after Martz returned to the Rams and completed 28 of 32 passes before being lost for the year with an injury in the preseason. Martz then guided Warner, who had seen one quarter of NFL action in 1998 after years in the Arena League and NFL Europe, into the starting lineup and to perhaps the most remarkable NFL season ever.

Martz began preparing for this coaching opportunity at Bullard High in Fresno, California, in 1973, then coached at San Diego Mesa Community College (1974 and 1976-77), San Jose State (1975), Santa Ana College in Santa Ana, California (1978), Fresno State (1979), University of the Pacific (1980-81), and Minnesota (1982). Mike was quarterbacks and receivers coach at Arizona State from 1983-87 and was the Sun Devils' offensive coordinator in 1984 and from 1988-91.

Mike is a summa cum laude graduate of Fresno State, where he played tight end in 1972. Mike also played at the University of California-Santa Barbara in 1971 and transferred to Fresno when UCSB dropped football. He also played two seasons at San Diego Mesa. Martz, who was born in Sioux Falls, S.D., moved to San Diego at age 8 and attended Madison High. Mike enjoys hiking and outdoor recreation. He is Civil War history buff and likes to read books about the West. He and his wife Julie have three sons, Chris, David, and Tim, and a daughter, Emily. The Martzes reside in Wildwood, Mo.

AL SAUNDERS

Associate Head Coach/ Wide Receivers

18th NFL Season
Second with Rams

Saunders was named associate head coach on June 17, 2000. Al joined the Rams Feb. 1, 1999, bringing a reputation as one of the outstanding receiver coaches in the NFL and background as a head coach and offensive architect.

Saunders came to the NFL in 1983 with the San Diego Chargers and coached all-Pro receivers Charlie Joiner, Kellen Winslow, and Wes Chandler in what was one of the most exciting and prolific pass offenses in NFL history. Al became the Chargers' head coach midway through the 1986 season and served in that capacity through 1988.

Prior to joining the Rams, Saunders was Assistant Head Coach and receivers coach of the Kansas City Chiefs from 1989-98. During that span the Chiefs compiled the best winning percentage in the AFC and made eight consecutive playoff appearances.

Saunders coached in college at USC (1970-71), Missouri (1972), Utah State (1973-75), California (1976-81), and Tennessee (1982). Saunders was assistant head coach and offensive coordinator at California during an era in which the Bears set 32 national and Pacific 10 Conference records. He coordinated Tennessee's explosive, record-setting offense that featured NFL first-round receivers Willie Gault, Tim McGee, and Clyde Duncan.

Al played wide receiver and defensive back at San Jose State, where he was a team captain and Academic All-America. He is enshrined in that university's Hall of Fame. As recipient of California's Fellowship for Academic Excellence, Saunders earned his Master's degree in Education from Stanford and was a Doctoral candidate in Athletic Administration at the University of Southern California. He has been recognized in Who's Who in America and was awarded California's prestigious Golden State Award for community service and leadership in 1989.

A former prep all-America swimmer and national recordholder from St. Ignatius High in San Francisco, Saunders also is an accomplished distance runner. An avid marathoner, Saunders won the Road Runners Club of America Master's 5K national championship in 1996.

STEVE BROWN
Secondary
14th NFL Season

Game 12 — RAMS 34, Carolina Panthers 21

Ericsson Stadium — December 5, 1999 — Partly Cloudy, 72 Degrees

On an historic day in Charlotte, the Rams won the NFC West for the first time since 1985 and clinched a playoff berth for the first time since 1989. Rams QB Kurt Warner set a Rams' single season record by completing his 32nd touchdown pass (the previous record of 31 was set by Jim Everett in 1988). For the first time in franchise history, the Rams had a 300-yard passer (Warner 351 yards), a 100-yard rusher (Marshall Faulk 118 yards) and two 100-yard receivers (Az-Zahir Hakim 122 yards, Isaac Bruce 111 yards) in the same game. Faulk became the first Rams' running back to top 1,000 yards since 1994. Warner threw three first-half touchdown passes (each to three different receivers) as the Rams jumped out to a 21-0 lead. Warner connected with TE Roland Williams (14 yards) and Hakim (48 yards) in the first quarter, then connected with Hakim again in the second quarter (49 yards) for the early margin. With 41 seconds left in the first half Carolina got on the board when QB Steve Beuerlein completed a 15-yard pass to TE Wesley Walls to make the score 21-7 at halftime. Beuerlein completed his second touchdown pass to WR Donald Hayes to cut the St. Louis lead to 21-14 with 5:13 left in the third quarter. St. Louis K Jeff Wilkins increased the Rams lead to 24-14 on the first play of the fourth quarter when he kicked a 44-yard field goal. Carolina answered on its ensuing play as Beuerlein completed a pass to WR Patrick Jeffers, who went 71 yards for the touchdown to make the score 24-21 with 14:31 to go in the game. Rams CB Dre' Bly put the game away with 9:48 left in the game when he picked off a Beuerlein pass and returned it 53 yards for the 31-21 advantage. Wilkins' second field goal of the day (29 yards) with 3:39 to play sealed the win.

Game 13 — RAMS 30, New Orleans Saints 14

Superdome — December 12, 1999 — Indoors, 77 degrees

For the second straight week the Rams had a 300-yard passer, 100-yard rusher, and two 100-yard receivers in the same game as St. Louis became the first team in NFL history to post a perfect record in their division (8-0) one season after going winless. QB Kurt Warner (346 passing yards), RB Marshall Faulk (154 rushing yards), and WRs Torry Holt (113 receiving yards) and Isaac Bruce (102 receiving yards) helped the Rams become only the second team in NFL history to accomplish the 300-100-100-100 feat twice in the same season. Playing in his hometown for the second time in his career, Faulk totaled 210 yards (56 receiving) and scored two touchdowns (1 rushing, 1 receiving). After New Orleans took an early 3-0 lead, the Rams put together a 9-play, 59-yard drive that culminated in a one-yard touchdown pass from QB Kurt Warner to RB Robert Holcombe, the first receiving TD of his career, to give St. Louis a 7-3 lead. After a Brien field goal (26 yards) and a TD pass from Billy Joe Tolliver gave the Saints a 14-7 lead, the Rams dominated the rest of the game. K Jeff Wilkins made a 40-yard field goal to close the deficit, then a pair of Rams' interceptions (Todd Lyght, Dexter McCleon) set up two Faulk touchdowns (4-yard run, 30-yard reception) as the Rams took control in taking a 24-14 lead to the half. St. Louis' defense pitched a shutout in the second half, limiting New Orleans to three first downs and 34 total yards after halftime. Wilkins made two field goals (30, 38) for the final margin as the Rams' completed their first season sweep of the Saints since 1997.

Game 15 — RAMS 34, Chicago Bears 12

Trans World Dome — December 26, 1999 — Indoors, 72 Degrees

St. Louis finished the season 8-0 at home, undefeated for the first time since 1977. RB Marshall Faulk became only the second player in NFl history to rush and receive for over 1,000 yards (Roger Craig was the other in 1985) . QB Kurt Warner threw for 334 yards and tied Dan Marino and Warren Moon for the NFL record for 300-yard passing games in a season with nine (Marino accomplished the feat in 1984 and Moon in 1990). Both teams were scoreless in the first quarter. The Rams scored on their next four straight possessoins and got on the board with 8:36 left in the second quarter when Warner tossed a screen pass to Faulk, who eluded tacklers en route to a 48-yard touchdown score for a 7-0 advantage. S Billy Jenkins stopped the ensuing Chicago drive when he intercepted QB Cade McNown's pass on the St. Louis 15 yard line and returned it two yards to the 17 yard line. Warner then led the Rams on a 7-play, 83-yard drive that culminated in a two-yard pass from Warner to TE Roland Williams for a 14-0 Rams lead. K Jeff Wilkins extended the St. Louis lead to 17-0 with 48 seconds left in the first half when he kicked a 38-yard field goal. Warner connected with WR Isaac Bruce to extend the Rams' lead to 24-0 with 9:59 left in the third quarter with a four yard pass for Bruce's 12th touchdown of the season. DE Grant Wistrom scored a team record eight defensive touchdown with 8:08 to go in the third quarter when the picked off Chicago QB Shane Matthew's pass and returned it 40 yards for a touchdown and a 31-0 Rams advantage. The Bears put their first points on the board when Matthews completed an eight yard pass to WR Bobby Engram to make the score 31-6 with 3:00 to go in the third quarter. Matthews connected with Engram once again for the score with 11:18 left in the game with a four yard pass to make the score 31-12. Veterans Stadium | January 2, 2000 | Partly Sunny, 54 Degrees

RB Marshall Faulk broke the NFL's all-time mark of 2,358 yards gained from scrimmage (previously held by Detroit RB Barry Sanders, 1997) in a season and finished the game with 2,429 total yards from scrimmage. QB Kurt Warner threw two touchdown passes, for 41 on the season, and became only the second player in NFL history to toss more than 40 touchdown passes in a season (the record of 48 is held by Dan Marino, Miami, 1983. Marino also had 44 in 1986.) The Rams got on the board with 9:50 left in the first quarter when Warner completed an eight yard shovel pass to Faulk, who went up the middle for the touchdown and a 7-0 Rams lead. Philadelphia K David Akers cut the lead to 7-3 when he kicked a 46-yard field goal with 7:27 remaining in the first quarter. Faulk scored his second touchdown after an eight-play, 86-yard drive with 11:57 to go in the first half when he scored on a one yard touchdown run for a 14-3 Rams advantage. On the ensuing drive Eagles QB Donovan McNabb completed a 63-yard pass to WR Torrance Small to make the score 14-10 with 10:14 remaining before halftime. St. Louis K Jeff Wilkins kicked a 47-yard field goal to make the score 17-10 with 6:20 left before the half. McNabb completed his second touchdown pass, this time to RB Duce Staley, with a shovel pass for the three-yard score with 25 seconds remaining in the half to make the score 17-17 at intermission. On the Rams first drive of the second half DE Mike Mamula intercepted Warner's pass and returned it 41 yards for a 24-17 Eagles lead with 12:15 to go in the third quarter. On the ensuing drive Warner led St. Louis on a six-play, 67 yard drive that ended with a 15-yard touchdown pass to WR Torry Holt to tie the game at 24. McNabb completed a five-yard pass to TE Chad Lewis to give the Eagles a 31-24 advantage with 10:55 to go in the game. CB Al Harris extended the Philly lead when he returned an interception thrown by St. Louis QB Joe Germaine, who entered the game in the third quarter to replace Warner, 17 yards for the touchdown to make the score 38-24. Germaine completed his first NFL touchdown pass, a 63 yarder, to Holt with 59 seconds remaining to make the score 38-31. RAMS HONORS

Each year, the Rams honor four players with special awards. The players and coaches combine to vote on two of the awards, the Daniel F. Reeves Memorial Award and the Carroll Rosenbloom Memorial Award, while the players vote on the Carl Ekern Spirit of the Game Award and the Ed Block Courage Award. A description of each award:

Daniel F. Reeves Memorial Award
Given to the team's Most Valuable Player. The award was established in 1969 in honor of the former owner of the Rams, Dan Reeves, who was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1967. Reeves owned the Rams from 1941-71 and claimed World Championships in 1945 and 1951. He was the first to integrate football in the modern era with the signing of Woody Strode and Kenny Washington in 1946.

Carroll Rosenbloom Memorial Award
Given to the team's Rookie of the Year. The award was established following the unexpected death of former owner Carroll Rosenbloom in 1979. Rosenbloom became the owner of the Rams when orchestrated an unprecedented franchise trade in 1972. Rosenbloom traded the Baltimore Colts to Robert Irsay for the Rams. The Rams won an NFL record seven consecutive NFC West titles from 1973-79 under Rosenbloom's leadership.

Carl Ekern Spirit of the Game Award
Established in 1990, the award is given to the player who best exemplifies sportsmanship, ethic, and commitment to his teammates. Those traits were displayed by former Rams linebacker Carl Ekern, killed in an automobile accident in 1990. Ekern was a starter for the Rams from 1982-88 and was invited to the Pro Bowl in 1986.

Ed Block Courage Award
Ed Block was the head trainer for the Baltimore Colts for 23 years. When the Ed Block Courage Award was founded in 1978, it honored a Colts player for showing courage on and off the field. In 1984, it became a league-wide award honoring one member from each NFL team. Proceeds from the award and the Ed Block Foundation go to support and provide housing for abused children.

1937 On Feb. 13, the National Football League grants a Cleveland franchise to Homer Marshman and Associates, a prominent group of local businessmen. Another Rams team in Cleveland had played in the American Football League in 1936 and finished with a 5-2-2 record, second best in the league. Hugo Bezdek is named head coach of new NFL franchise. Rams finish with a 1-10 record. Home games are played in Municipal Stadium and League Park. Bob Kelley is named radio play-by-play announcer.

1938 Assistant coach Art Lewis takes over team after three losses at start of season. Rams win first three under Lewis but finish with 4-7 record. Home games were played in Shaw Stadium, named after high school located on Shaw Avenue in Cleveland.

1939 Earl (Dutch) Clark becomes head coach. Rams finish at .500 for first time with 5-5-1 record. Parker Hall joins team as rookie tailback and wins Joe Carr Trophy as NFL's official Most Valuable Player. Trophy is named after NFL president. Hall is first Ram to earn first team All-Pro honors.

1940 Rams drops back to 4-6-1 record. Fullback Johnny (Zero) Drake is All-NFL first team.

1941 Daniel F. Reeves and Fred Levy, Jr., purchase Rams in June and hire Billy Evans as general manager. Team wins first two games but drops next nine to finish fifth in NFL West.

1942 Evans resigns before season. Charles (Chile) Walsh replaces Art Lewis as assistant coach. Lt. Reeves and Maj. Levy depart to enter armed forces. Bob Kelley is named club secretary. After three seasons in Municipal Stadium Rams return to play all home games in League Park. Team finishes 5-6.

1943 Clark resigns as coach. Chile Walsh is named head coach, but NFL grants Rams permission to suspend operations for one season because of wartime problems. On April 16, Reeves buys out Levy. On loan to Detroit, Riley Matheson is All-Pro selection.

The following year, 1987, Savard spent the season with the Cowboys on injured reserve after suffering a neck injury in the preseason.

Snow enjoyed an 11-year career with the Rams at wide receiver. He ranks third in team history in receiving yards (6,012) and fourth in career receptions (340). Snow also had a stint with the Rams in the coaching ranks, coaching receivers in 1982. ST. LOUIS RAMS FOUNDATION

"One of the goals of the Rams, and my personal goal, has always been the education and well-being of all our children. Through our Foundation and continued community involvement, we will strive to provide opportunities for youth so they may make their dreams a reality."

- Georgia Frontiere
Majority owner and chairman, St. Louis Rams

Established in 1997 with a million-dollar commitment from team owners Georgia Frontiere and Stan Kroenke, the St. Louis Rams Foundation is a separate non-profit arm of the Rams' community outreach program formalizing the team's commitment to the St. Louis region that encompasses a 100-mile radius.

The St. Louis Rams Foundation seeks win-win opportunities to fund and gives preference to proposals that clearly articulate the ways the Rams organization may become involved in the organization in order to develop a meaningful partnership. Preference is given to programs that impact youth particularly in the areas of education/literacy, health and recreation.

Grant applications are reviewed bi-annually with deadlines of January 1 and July 1.

St. Louis Rams Community Outreach Team

The St. Louis Rams Foundation and Rams Community Relations Department work together to comprise the Rams Community Outreach Team. The close working relationship between the Foundation and Community Relations make possible creative partnerships between the St. Louis Rams and St. Louis area organizations. This team collaborates with area organizations to leverage resources, build awareness and serve as a catalyst for change. Rams players, management, staff and cheerleaders are active in many of these collaborations. Some highlights of the Rams Community Outreach Team initiatives include:

Grantmaking

The Rams Foundation awarded their first round of grants in Spring 1998 and to date have awarded more than $600,000 to 145 organizations in the St. Louis region creating year-long partnerships.

To create the most effective partnerships with grantees, the Outreach staff provides technical assistance in the form of comprehensive brainstorming sessions to help agencies address their challenges, program development, and marketing communications counsel. When appropriate, players, coaches, staff and cheerleaders lend their time to a program, which leverages the resources of the Rams and makes a positive impact on the youth served.

Community First

Each year, the St. Louis Rams and Rams Foundation issue a challenge to youth organizations throughout the St. Louis area to earn a seat at a Rams regular season home game by "putting the community first." This program, which awards tickets for community projects, has generated more than 50,000 hours of community service since its inception in 1998. Each participant has the chance to walk on the sideline of the Trans World Dome prior to kickoff and receives a complimentary T-shirt and coupons for food and refreshments during the game.

Mission Statement

The St. Louis Rams Foundation supports efforts and organizations that inspire positive change in the greater St. Louis area with an emphasis on youth.

Get Into the Game Program

This program, coordinated by the Cooperating School Districts (CSD) which represents more than 250,000 area students, promotes positive character development and decision-making among area youth by utilizing Rams players and cheerleaders as positive role models. Keying on 'buzz' words like Respect, Responsibility and Perseverance, the video, produced by KMOV Channel 4, and the curriculum, funded by the Rams Foundation, serve as valuable tools for teachers and parents in encouraging today's youth to fulfill their dreams.

Youth Football

Youth football, and flag football in particular, makes up the majority of the Foundation's recreation grants. From funds to purchase a new scoreboard to flags and mouth guards, the Rams Foundation is committed to inspiring positive change in area youth by teaching the value of teamwork, sportsmanship, and healthy competition. Two current noteworthy programs are:

- St. Louis Public Schools

In 1998, the Rams Foundation initiated a partnership with the St. Louis Public Schools to implement a year long flag football curriculum in one-third of their elementary, middle and high schools. Funds were provided for the purchase of flag football equipment and uniforms. The program culminated with championship games, at each grade level, played on the practice fields at Rams Park. In 1999 the program expanded to another third of the schools and this year will encompass all of the St. Louis Public Schools.

- CHAMP

A unique collaboration of more than twenty children's homes serving at-risk youth who are in emergency placement, residential and day treatment programs, CHAMP (Children's Home Activities Meet Program) organizes seasonal sports activities that allows children living in these homes to improve social skills, increase self-confidence and develop athletic abilities. With assistance from the Foundation and NFL Flag, flag football has been added to their sports curriculum. In addition to providing equipment, the grant provides for a special year-end banquet – where in 1999, LB London Fletcher gave an inspirational speech as the keynote speaker.

Rams 28 Club

Rams running back Marshall Faulk, the Rams and the Rams Foundation have teamed up to form a special club for urban kids. The Rams 28 Club is an incentive-based program for children living in public housing which encourages and rewards them for positive choices in life with specific emphasis on attitude, education and community service. Using a giant football field board to monitor progress, members gain yardage with positive behavior at home and school and earn incentives along the way. The program was piloted in 1999 in the Cochran Community Center, just north of the Trans World Dome, and the Christian Activity Center in East St. Louis, Illinois and will expand in 2000 to the Castle Point Neighborhood in St. Louis County and the Jackie Joyner Kersee Center in East St. Louis.

Future Executives

The Future Executives program is a collaborative program developed with Rams marketing sponsor Xerox of Mid America, the Rams Marketing Department, Rams Foundation and AAIM Management Association. This nine-month program is designed to provide area high school students with the opportunity to gain a better understanding of daily business functions through skill-based seminars and visits to area companies. The students participate in monthly activities, keep a journal and participate in de-briefing sessions with their school advisors. The program also includes a kickoff luncheon and closing celebration at Rams Park, as well as tickets and recognition at a Rams home game.
